

GCSE Religious Studies

Exam Board

Eduqas

Overview

We will study a range of Philosophical and Ethical topics. In Ethics we will learn about different ideas about right and wrong in modern real life situations. This could be ideas about family, marriage, divorce, euthanasia, abortion, or issues on human rights. You can tackle the big questions of humanity: What is the meaning of life? How did we get here? What happens when we die? Why is there evil in the world? Does this sounds interesting to you?

Course Structure

Component one: Religious, philosophical and ethical issues in the world
Issues of relationships
Issues of life and death
Issues of good and evil
Issues of human rights
Component two: Study of Christianity
Beliefs and teachings
Practices
Component three: Study of a world faith
Choice of: Islam, Judaism, Buddhism, Sikhism and Hinduism

Assessment

Component one – A 2 hour exam focussing on all 4 ethical and philosophical topics.
Component two – A 1 hour exam focussing on Christianity.
Component three – A 1 hour exam focussing on a world faith.
Exams - Pupils will be expected to interpret sources and be able to write in a thoughtful and logical manner. Pupils do not need to be religious but must be willing to analyse issues from different points of view.

Further information From:

Mr Hassall

